

MIDDLETON

TOP COMMUNITIES GUIDE

BEST SELLING | TOP LUXURY | MOST AFFORDABLE

Middleton provides country living with easy urban access. The town's motto captures the slower pace of life and a strong sense of community. Larger plots of land are a popular attraction for people looking for acreage properties to build custom homes or ranchettes. The town has around 8,000 people, preserving the farm town's sense of community as it grows. Don't be surprised to see wild pheasants and turkeys along the banks of the Boise River. Access to the entire Treasure Valley is easy from Highway 44 or Interstate-84.

MIDDLETON

Middleton has its own greenbelt, which allows residents to get around town while also being active and enjoying nature. The Middleton Parks Department maintains the green space in and around the town as well as providing community activities and learning opportunities. The town of Emmett—famous for its annual Cherry Festival— is 30 minutes north on Emmett Road or nearby Highway 16. Sol Invictus Vineyard is one of southern Idaho’s many wineries and sits to the east. The farmland surrounding Middleton backs up to the foothills, which provide plenty of hiking and biking opportunities, and the Boise River runs along the town’s southern border.

MEDIAN HOME PRICE: $599,900

MIDDLETON

SUBDIVISIONS

	TOTAL SALES	MEDIAN SALES PRICE
Meadows at West Highlands	39	$415,000
Stonehaven	10	$515,000
Black Acres	6	$724,000
Valhalla	4	$676,250
Country Estates
Crescent Lake	3	$661,900

Scan the QR code to view new Middleton subdivisions.

BUILD IDAHO FAVORITES

TOP RESTAURANTS

- KRAVZ
- The Burger Den
- Garbonzo’s Pizza
- Tsai’s Kitchen

POINTS OF INTEREST

- Middleton Bike Path
- Middleton Place Park
- Boise River
- Duff Pond

COFFEE SHOPS

- Middleton Espresso Cafe
- The Original Sunrise Cafe

*The Information Provided Is Derived From The Intermountain MLS. It Is Deemed Reliable But Not Guaranteed.