TOP COMMUNITIES GUIDE

BEST SELLING | TOP LUXURY | MOST AFFORDABLE

Nampa is the fastest-growing city in Idaho. Thanks to its storied history as a farming and railroad town, the city has a mix of older, established neighborhoods with larger homes, as well as brand new subdivisions to accommodate the people looking to live in and around this growing city. Nampa's downtown is growing as the city expands, which has brought in new businesses and employment opportunities. As Nampa has expanded, many new schools have been built to create plenty of educational opportunities for families. Northwest Nazarene University sits on the southern edge of downtown and brings many students from around the northwest to further their education.

NAMPA

Nampa has become a shopping and entertainment hub thanks to Treasure Valley Marketplace, Ford Idaho Center, Nampa Gateway Center, and Lake Lowell. The annual Snake River Stampede is held in the third week of July and is considered one of the top rodeos in the nation. Held at the Idaho Center, this rodeo brings national talent and large crowds excited to see amazing performances. Nampa is also home to a large portion of Idaho's growing wine scene. More than a dozen wineries and vineyards surround Nampa, each with unique results.
